

Please help keep the public's interest by not changing the current set of media ownership rules. I feel that it is important to have a limit on the amount of representation any certain media company can have in a given market.